

Labor Market Information Resource Guide for Jobseekers

The following are available at www.paworkstats.state.pa.us

High Priority Occupations

Highly skilled, well-paying jobs in Pennsylvania's targeted industry clusters that are in demand by employers.

Long-Term Occupational Employment Projections

Forecasts the anticipated changes in occupational employment in 10 years. Changes in the industrial mix of a region's economy will play a major role in determining the growth or decline of the various occupational groups.

Occupational Wages

Contains average, median, entry and experienced level wages for approximately 750 occupations. Data is available by county, workforce investment area, and Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania Career Guide

Designed to assist those exploring careers and making decisions about post-secondary education, training and work.

Pennsylvania Occupational Outlook Handbook

Contains descriptions of what workers do on the job, working conditions, the training and education needed, earnings, and expected job prospects in a wide range of occupations in Pennsylvania.

Top 50 Employers

Lists the largest employers ranked by number of employees.

Careers in Demand

www.paworkforce.state.pa.us

One-Page reports designed for job seekers and career counselors for high priority occupations.

Career Guide to Industries

www.bls.gov/oco/cg/

Companion to the National Occupational Outlook Handbook and provides information from the industry perspective.

National Occupational Outlook Handbook

www.bls.gov/oco/home.htm

Nationally recognized source of career information that can be used as a reference document to learn about the type of work, working conditions, education and training requirements and advancement possibilities, earnings, job outlook and related occupations.

Occupational Information Network (O*NET)

<http://online.onetcenter.org/>

The nation's primary source of occupational information provides an interactive application for exploring and searching occupations.

Occupational Outlook Quarterly

www.bls.gov/opub/ooq/

Provides practical information on jobs and careers and covers a wide variety of career and work-related topics.